

Jeremie L. Roussel
Associate Lawyer at MLT Aikins LLP

Jeremie's practice focuses on assisting clients with planning, drafting and negotiating contracts for construction projects, and advising on matters related to procurement of goods and services, including construction and professional services. Because of this experience he brings a unique perspective to the Board, and we appreciate how he helps us to see a wider perspective of the construction industry.